

Notice to unitholders of DDH Preferred Income Fund Resignation and appointment of compliance plan auditor

Due to the merger of Moore Stephens with Crowe Horwath Queensland, audit partner Michael McDonald, applied to ASIC seeking its consent to resign as compliance plan auditor.

On 25 November 2016, DDH Graham Limited (DDH) received notification from ASIC advising it had granted its consent to Mr McDonalds' resignation.

Crowe Horwath (Queensland) (Crowe Horwath) advised DDH that it has consented to being appointed replacement compliance plan auditor subject to ASIC's consent of Mr McDonalds' resignation.

DDH has reviewed Crowe Horwath's suitability for the role of compliance plan auditor and believe there are no reasons to believe Crowe Horwath cannot complete a compliance plan audit as required under the Corporations Act 2001.

Accordingly, Crowe Horwath has been appointed compliance plan auditor of the Fund effective 6 December 2016.
